As the ski trip is approaching and the final balance should now have been paid, more details regarding the final travel arrangements will be shared with you once I receive them. Upon our return after the Christmas break, I will be sending a medical form for you to complete and a kit list to support your purchases.

A meeting has been arranged on Tuesday 24th January at 6pm to discuss the trip in more detail, a representative from equity will also be present to share their expert knowledge with you.
